The newspaper clipping is from the July 7, 2018 issue of Harian Jogja. The main headline reads "Pemkot Terus Tata Area Parkir". The article discusses the ongoing efforts by the Yogyakarta City Government (Pemkot) to manage parking areas. It mentions that the high volume of vehicles in Yogyakarta has caused difficulties, particularly in the central business district (Kota). The government is implementing measures such as marking and delineating parking spaces to improve convenience for residents and tourists. The article quotes Heroe Poerwadi, Vice Mayor of Yogyakarta, who emphasizes the importance of creating a safe and comfortable environment for both locals and visitors. It also quotes Agus Gendut Suprawoto, a local entrepreneur, who expresses his support for these measures. The article concludes with a quote from Abdul Hamid Razak, stating that parking management is crucial for the city's overall development.
